ISAIAH 60:1

KNOWN
WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

"Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and
his glory appears over you."

Isaiah 60:1-2

welcome, ladies!

We are so glad you are here!

Thank you for joining us in person and virtually. Our hearts are overjoyed to share that we are in year four and God is up to big things. Our mission is to join together in community and conversations around Jesus.

God has been at work and is already doing things in and through you. We have prayed for this event and are expectant of what God will do.

This year's theme is RISE, from Isaiah 60:1-2, "Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord rises upon you. See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the Lord rises upon you and his glory appears over you." So RISE and SHINE and give God the Glory ladies. Let's Rise Up and Shine Out for Jesus.

We are excited to celebrate being known and loved by each other and our Papa, Jesus. We can't wait to see what takeaways you have.

We Need to Talk: The Courage to Have

Conversations about Race | Should racial justice discussions be part of the church? Despite Jesus' prayer for unity, we grapple with its form amid a broken world. A vital challenge is to bring these dialogues to church without politicization or animosity. Courage and humility are needed to initiate race talks, this is crucial for a church's mission and well-being. Inspired by Jesus' courage and humility, scriptures emphasize justice. Join a dialogue to build bridges, not barriers, centered on race matters, guided by inquiry and reflection.

Good news, all workshops are available online until November 15th.

How Can I BE STILL in This Storm? | In the storms you face today, find solace in Psalm 46's imagery. Verse 10 implores, 'Be still and know that I am God...' He hears, guides, offers refuge. Discover hope and stillness in the midst of life's turbulence. Be still, and know His presence.

Trusting in the Process of God's Perfect Timing | Everyone waits – job, proposal, dreams. Ellen waited through unfair, painful times, and struggled with this. But God used waiting to reach her. Struggles in waiting unite us, as seen in Abraham, Sarah, Moses, and more. Trusting God's timing means waiting well. Explore reasons behind waiting and how to do it right. Romans 5:6 reminds us of Christ's timing. Like Paul, Ellen aims to trust even when it's perplexing.

Just as Jesus loved the woman at the well, Kristen hopes God’s word guides us to contentment and satisfaction in Christ alone.

ANAVAH is just enough | Pause to recognize, rise up, and show up authentically. ‘You are enough’ rings true, but busyness often obscures self-discovery. What’s the essence of being ‘enough’?
